Minister Ty GWY Wilson: Affirmations and Daily Rituals

Built from Ty's notebook goals, the Positive Energy Church Handbook (v3.0), Positive Energy: A Spiritual Guide for All People, Napoleon Hill's success principles, and Paramahansa Yogananda's teachings. As of October 24, 2026.

1. My Definite Purpose Statement

Read this aloud morning and night. Hill's method: say what you want, by when, and what you will give in return. Yogananda's test: it must be right for you and serve others.

What I am building. I have built a billion-dollar church that shares the power of Positive Energy with the world. I am known as the Minister of PE. This is my life's work.
How it is fueled. I use my skills and my love of the arts to build clothing lines and a media company that share the mission with the world and build the wealth that fuels the Church. Every business works toward the same mission in its own way, and every business helps the others reach our goal.
What I give in return. I give my art, my voice, my music, my films and my books. I give the history of my people, preserved and told true. I give service to my community, and a place where every person is welcome to grow.
How I keep it moving. I keep the plan in action through daily acts of organized labor. I keep an organized plan with deadlines, and I finish each short-term goal while always working toward the mission. It will be completed through hard work and persistence, and we will inform the world.

2. Morning Prayer

Ty GWY's Morning Prayer

Great Spirit, source of all life, I do not come asking for more riches. I come asking for the wisdom to honor what You already placed in my hands: a mind that is mine to govern, a voice that is mine to raise, and the blood of two peoples who survived so that I could stand here.

Let me carry my ancestors' stories with clean hands and a clear heart. Let what I build feed my family, my community, and the generations not yet born. Let my thoughts stay fixed on purpose, not on fear. Where there is struggle, show me the seed of good inside it. Where there is division, make me a bridge.

Send positive energy out through me today, and let it return multiplied to everyone I serve.

Wado, for the gift of my own mind. I will use it well.

Short version (say with your purpose statement through the day): Great Spirit, I ask not for more riches, but for wisdom to use the gift You gave me at birth: the power to direct my own mind toward my purpose, for my people and those to come. Wado.

3. Daily Affirmations

Say these in the first person, out loud, with feeling. Hill teaches that feeling is what gives words their power. Pick the set that fits the day, or say them all.

Mission

- I am the Minister of Positive Energy. High Spirits. Deep Roots. Total Love.
- Positive Energy Church grows every day, and every person it touches leaves stronger.
- I leave every place better than I found it.

Wealth as fuel

- Money is fuel for the mission, not the mission itself.
- My businesses prosper because they serve. Prosperity flows where purpose leads.
- There is enough, and I am enough. I build from abundance, not lack.
- Every dollar my work earns carries the mission farther.

Creative work

- My art, my music, my books and my films are gifts I was given to share.
- BLK-FTHR is finished in 2027. I work on it every day until it is done.
- I tell the true history of Black Cherokee people with courage and care.

Harmony and order

- My businesses work in harmony, like instruments in one song.
- I keep an organized plan with deadlines, and I keep my word to it.
- Once the flow is right, the work does not feel like work. I enjoy the pursuit of the mission.

Body and mind

- My body is the instrument of the mission. I feed it, move it and rest it with respect.

- I control my own mind. Fear has no vote in my decisions.

Persistence

- I do not quit. Every setback carries the seed of something good, and I look for it.
- I decide quickly and change course slowly.
- Today I take at least one action toward every major goal.

Gratitude (from the PE Pillars)

- I choose kindness. I choose service. I choose wisdom. I choose gratitude. I choose integrity. I choose community. I choose growth.

4. Daily Ritual Schedule

A model day. Shift the times to fit your real wake-up time; keep the order.

Time	Ritual	What to do
5:30 AM	Wake and ground	No phone for the first 30 minutes. Drink water. Three breaths: inhale 4, hold 2, exhale 6.
5:40 AM	Prayer and purpose	Say the Morning Prayer. Read your Definite Purpose Statement aloud.
5:50 AM	Meditation	20 minutes of silent sitting. Breathe, let thoughts pass, listen for hunches. Keep a notebook nearby.
6:15 AM	Exercise	30 to 45 minutes: a walk outdoors, strength work, and stretching.
7:00 AM	Breakfast	A real meal, sitting down. Name one blessing, one lesson, and one person you appreciate.
7:30 AM	Daily intention	Write: "Today I choose to show up with ___." Then write the day's top 3 actions: one for the church, one for the businesses, one for the creative work.
8:00 AM	Deep creative block	2.5 hours on the most important creative work: BLK-FTHR, a book, a song or a design. No email or social media.
10:30 AM	Break	Move, water, fresh air.
10:45 AM	Business block	Websites, marketing, store, email list, orders, partners.
12:30 PM	Lunch	Away from the screen.
1:30 PM	Mission and service block	Church work, The Beat, outreach, calls, elder interviews, community.
3:30 PM	Admin and follow-up	Bookkeeping, scheduling, replies, deadlines check.
4:30 PM	Movement reset	Short walk or stretch. Three-breath reset.

Time	Ritual	What to do
5:00 PM	Family and rest	Dinner and time with family.
8:00 PM	Evening review	Ask the Ten Daily Questions (below). Sort the day into what moved the mission and what did not. Plan tomorrow's top 3.
8:30 PM	Gratitude and close	Read your purpose statement once more. Short prayer of thanks. Screens off.
9:30 PM	Sleep	Aim for 7 to 8 hours.

The Ten Daily Questions (from the PE Handbook)

1. Was I kind today?
2. Did I learn something today?
3. Did I respect others today?
4. Did I help someone today?
5. Did I protect someone today?
6. Did I build something today?
7. Was I grateful today?
8. Did I care for my environment today?
9. Did I contribute more positivity than negativity today?
10. Did I leave things better than I found them today?

6. Rituals for Hard Days

- When you feel stuck: Find the "can do" part of the problem and start there, right where you stand.
- When you feel anger: Laugh it off, then switch to five minutes of action on the mission.
- When you feel fear about money: Say "There is enough, and I am enough," then do one task that brings in income today.
- When you feel worn out: Rest is part of the work. Take the Three-Breath Reset: release, welcome, commit.
- When you feel sorry for yourself: Find someone who needs help and give it.
